Of Interest Here.

A dinner preceded the marriage at 1:30 Wednesday, November 28, of Miss Mery Alta Campbell, daughter of Mrs. R. G. Campbell, of Columbus, Ohlo, to George T. Peters, of Asheville. One hundred guests witnessed the service at King Avenue Methodist Church, solemnized by the pastor, Rev. Thomas H. Campbell.

The bride was attended by her two isters. Miss Grace Campbell as maid of honor and Miss D'Lyla Campbell as of honor and Miss D'Lyla Campbell as bridesmaid. The best man was R. H. Stephens, Bellaire, and the ushers were Harold Anderson, Cleveland, and Lynn Osborne, Columbus. The bride was Osborne. Columbus. The bride was given in marriage by her brother. J. M. Campbell, of Richmond, and another brother, J. W. Campbell, Massillon, who is on his way to Norfolk to join the navy, was a member of the bridal party. Charles Pryce presided at the organ charles Pryce presided at the organ and Miss Margaret Gongwer sang.

The bride wore a suit of brown silvertone, with hat and gloves to match, and her flowers were sweet peas and lilles of the aliey. Miss Grace Campbell wore a blue frock with blue hat and sweet peas and sunburst rosebuds. Miss D'Lyla Campbell was gowned in green, with Ophella rosebuds and sweet peas. The church was decorated with American flags, among which floated the stars and bars of the Confederacy.
